Mod-HSAP: What is it?
Mod-HSAP is an assessment tool used to measure student progress in various subjects. It is designed to help educators identify areas where students may need additional support and to track student progress over time.

Mod-HSA: What is it?
Mod-HSA is a standardized test used to evaluate student performance in mathematics. It is designed to measure students' understanding of mathematical concepts and their ability to apply these concepts to solve problems.

Al-MHS: What is it?
Al-MHS is a standardized test used to evaluate student performance in science. It is designed to measure students' understanding of scientific concepts and their ability to apply these concepts to solve problems.

Mod-HSA - What are the implications for students? The implications of Mod-HSA scores for students include:
- Identifying areas where students may need additional support
- Tracking student progress over time
- Informing teachers about areas where instruction may need to be adjusted

Mod-HSA - What are the implications for educators? The implications of Mod-HSA scores for educators include:
- Identifying areas where instruction may need to be adjusted
- Informing parents about their child's performance
- Informing stakeholders about the performance of the school or district

www.marylandpublicschools.org