Topics Discussed

- I. The latest application (RFQ) for new and reapplying SES providers has been released, with a due date of March 13, 2009. The RFQ Pre-Proposal meeting(s) will be held in February and the dates are posted in the RFQ, which is online at the Maryland SES web page. Providers that have served for four years may reapply under the current RFQ.
- II. The Maryland State Department of Education is launching a new data collection system for Title I programs, including SES. The new Web-Based Data System is aimed at making entering and maintaining required data submissions easier and more efficient. The new system was explained by Kristi Peters of MSDE and Providers were informed about forthcoming opportunities to become familiar with the new system and test it.
