DATE:       December 4, 2018
SUBJECT:    COMAR 13A.04.05
            Education That is Multicultural
            REPEAL
            COMAR 13A.01.06
            Educational Equity (NEW)
            PERMISSION TO PUBLISH

PURPOSE: The purpose of this action is to request the repeal of COMAR 13A.04.05 Education That is Multicultural and request permission to publish new regulation COMAR 13A.01.06 Educational Equity, which replaces COMAR 13A.04.05.

REGULATION PROMULGATION PROCESS: Under Maryland law, a state agency, such as the State Board, may propose a new regulation whenever the circumstances arise to do so. After the State Board votes to propose such a regulation, the proposed regulation is sent to the Administrative, Executive, and Legislative Review (AELR) Committee for a 15-day review period. If the AELR Committee does not hold up the proposed regulation for further review, it is published in the Maryland Register for a 30-day public comment period. At the end of the comment period, the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) staff reviews and summarizes the public comments. Thereafter, MSDE staff will present a recommendation to the State Board of Education to either: (1) adopt the regulation in the form it was proposed; or (2) revise the regulation and adopt it as final because the suggested revision is not a substantive change; or (3) revise the regulation and re-propose it because the suggested revision is a substantive change. At any time during this process, the AELR Committee may stop the promulgation process and hold a hearing. Thereafter, it may recommend to the Governor that the regulation not be adopted as a final regulation or the AELR Committee may release the regulation for final adoption.

BACKGROUND/HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE: The State Board of Education granted permission to publish amendments to COMAR 13A.04.05, Education That is Multicultural, in October 2016. Based upon input from Board members and public comment, the proposed amendments were withdrawn in February 2017. Using the Council of Chief State School Officers’ (CCSSO) document, Leading for Equity: Opportunities for State Education Chiefs, the State Superintendent collaborated with the Network for Equity and Excellence in Education (NE3) to develop new regulations focused on educational equity. There was representation and involvement from each local school system. The State Board reviewed the new regulations on September 25, 2018 and suggested changes, including annual updates to the State Board. The State Superintendent met with NE3 to facilitate the revisions.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The new educational equity regulations establish equity as a priority for the Maryland State Department of Education and all local school systems. The regulation has been shared with the NE3 and revised to reflect input from the State Board at its September 25, 2018 meeting.

ACTION:

Request permission to repeal COMAR 13A.04.05 Education that is Multicultural and permission to publish COMAR 13A.01.06 Educational Equity.

Maryland Equity Regulation Analysis and Recommendations

Equal Opportunity Schools commends the Maryland Department of Education (MSDE) and Board of Education for the necessary leadership in ensuring every student in Maryland receives an education that prepares them for lifelong learning, success in work and participation in their community. This memo offers our analysis of the regulation brought forth during the September 2018 board meeting. We hope this analysis adds to the fruitful and necessary work by MSDE leaders to ensure that districts make specific, measurable commitments to equity, and hold schools accountable.

In this memo, EOS praises MSDE for the positive steps it is taking to ensure all districts define equity and create local plans for addressing equity issues. This memo also highlights opportunities that could strengthen the regulation and increase the likelihood that districts will create high-quality equity policy.

As we continue to partner with MSDE and districts, we would be glad to provide additional resources, support or technical assistance requested by MSDE to ensure the successful adoption and roll out of this regulation.

Praise
Maryland’s leadership is well ahead of many other states to define and execute on statewide equity priorities, and to more directly push and support districts to take steps toward addressing local equity issues.
- The regulation offers a strong, explicit statement of principle.
- The regulation includes definitions of equity and equity lens at the outset and clearly states that Maryland’s goal is ensure educational equity for all students from birth to 12th grade.
- The regulation is inclusive and provides clear, succinct definitions to some important terms.
- There is real commitment in housing this regulation within the School Admin section as it brings attention to the issue of equity as a key focus that all district staff and school administrators need to be thinking about.

Overall, these regulations come from a great foundation and will push Maryland schools to improve outcomes for all students. Many Kudos to Dr. Salmon and her staff for these.

Considerations
Below are some considerations for MSDE’s review. As we were not part of drafting this regulation, we acknowledge that the state may have already considered these recommendations.
#1. Strengthen MSDE’s role to set district requirements, provide ongoing support and technical assistance, and monitor and report district progress.

Last year MSDE made huge strides in setting and communicating an equity vision (e.g., cross-agency focus on equity, ESSA reporting, differentiating support to districts). At the September 2018 State Board meeting, Board members applauded MSDE’s leadership and requested that MSDE consider additional requirements for itself, and additional ways to offer high-quality support to districts. Here are a few suggestions related to that conversation.

Through regulation

<th>Recommendations</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>.04 Requirements</td>
<td>While we appreciate the need to avoid too much specificity in drafting regulations, consider these additions to strengthen the demonstration of state’s commitment to equity:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Maryland State Department of Education shall establish systems of structure and support for school systems, students, teachers, and other stakeholders that ensure equity and excellence.</td>
<td>▪ Require that MSDE highlight and share with districts sample components of high-quality equity policies (e.g., stakeholder engagement procedures, school technical assistance offerings, professional development and personnel management strategies, reporting and accountability structures).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>▪ Require that MSDE provide districts with guidance around how to apply an equity-lens within priority K12 focus areas (e.g., representative examples include teacher placement, educator effectiveness, curriculum adoption and access, major Kirwan recommendations).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Through guidance and support (not to be specified in regulation)

- Develop an annual, state-level progress report highlighting implementation successes, challenges and outcomes achieved. This could include special views of report card data that highlight progress and gaps (teacher access, course access, achievement gaps, funding gaps, etc.).
- Design a rubric that guides districts through creating a high-quality equity policy including, but not limited to, stakeholder engagement procedures, school technical assistance offerings, professional development and personnel management strategies, and reporting and accountability structures. EOS could be a thought partner on this.
- Showcase outstanding outcomes and practices during the state’s annual equity conference in order to promote those who are making great gains and to spread the good word.
- Develop district-level communications toolkits designed to increase local stakeholder engagement and increase the district’s reach to diverse audiences (e.g., greater public transparency, making reports accessible via multiple languages, wide distribution channels, accessibility from mobile devices, etc.).
- If feasible, provide incentives for districts to develop high-quality policy and sets of regulations. This could be additional resources for planning and implementation of key initiatives or special invites to state-sponsored equity workshops.
#2. Ensure districts prioritize the development and use of high-quality equity policy.

The below recommendations aim to help MSDE hold districts accountable for designing and implementing high-quality equity policies within the state and local accountability parameters that exist and with regard for Maryland’s state and local context. Based on our interpretation of the current policy and our review of the September Board meeting, we believe Maryland would benefit by adding to equity policy requirements that districts demonstrate the use of disaggregated data in directing resources to provide equitable access to educational opportunities and services.

<td>.04 Requirements</td>
<td></td>

<tr>
<td>A. Direct the use of resources to provide equitable access to educational opportunities and services.</td>
<td>▪ Be more directive about how districts must direct the use of resources; for example, local equity plans must include that districts “Direct the use of resources to provide equitable access to educational opportunities and services by, among other steps, demonstrating the use of disaggregated student data to analyze trends, identify gaps and steer the district to equitable solutions.”</td>

<tr>
<td>D. Require that an equity lens be used in reviews of teacher and instructional leader candidates, curriculum, pedagogy, professional learning, instructional materials, and assessment design.</td>
<td>▪ Consider requiring each school system to first define its approach and/or framework for applying an equity lens as a key component of their equity plan. ▪ Provide additional guidance on how districts can measure their ability to apply an equity lens. This could be a framework within the regulation or in the model policy covering areas that you’d like to see districts regularly focusing on (e.g., funding gaps by school poverty level &amp; race, access to early childhood ed and advanced learning opportunities, discipline &amp; absenteeism by race and program type, assignment to new teachers, teacher diversity)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Through guidance and support (not to be specified in regulation)

▪ Push LEAs to be more rigorous and inclusive in how they identify, prioritize and solve equity issues, such as by explicitly encouraging public data sharing and analysis of disaggregated data; and through meaningful and frequent engagement with a diverse set of stakeholders.

▪ Require more reporting at the local level of equity goals. This could include requiring the district board to have at least one hearing on the equity policy each year and include certain stakeholders.

▪ Conduct district equity audits if district accountability measures indicate outcome gaps. If followed up by technical assistance, this is accountability-lite. The state could put an uncomfortable spotlight on the district’s policies without pushing for school closings or funding consequences.

▪ Add the equity policy implementation to the state ESSA compliance, not just including it in the district’s plan as an attachment. This would allow MSDE to withhold federal funds—in some circumstances—from districts not implementing meaningful equity strategies.

▪ Encourage district-to-district resource sharing and technical assistance. The state should specifically focus on districts with the greatest opportunity gaps, using the equity conference.
