Comprehensive Support and Improvement Schools in Maryland

Dr. Gail Clark Dickson, Title I Section Chief
Tricia Crafton, Coordinator, School Improvement
Title I - Program Improvement and Family Support

MARYLAND STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
EQUITY AND EXCELLENCE
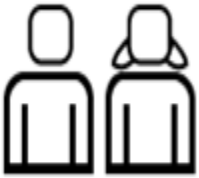

Title I Spring Administrative Meeting

May 15, 2019

1

Session Outcomes

By the end of this session, participants will:

- Receive an Update of Comprehensive Support and Improvement Schools in Maryland

- Review the Cycle of Continuous Improvement

- Understand the Status and Next Steps of CSI Schools

Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI) Schools

- Lowest Achieving 5% of Title I Schools
- Graduation Rate Less Than 67%
- SIG IV Schools

3 Local School Systems

44 Schools

Cycle of Continuous Improvement

1. Define the Problem of Practice

2. Select Evidence-Based Solutions

3. Implement a Plan

4. Adjust, Continue, or Stop Solution
CSI Schools: Where Have We Been?

School Profile

Student Profile Data

Student Achievement Data

Staff Profile Data

Analysis of School Strengths and Challenges

CSI Schools: Where Are We Now?

Items in Progress

Pre-Implementa-tion Budgets

3rd Party Root Cause Analysis

Curriculum Vetting

CSI Schools: What's Next?

Intervention Plan Development, Approval, and Implementation

School-level and LSS Monitoring

School Improvement

Leadership Coaches

Leading for School Improvement Institute

Contact Information

Paula M. Harris, M.Ed., Director,

Title I Program Improvement and Family Support
paula.harris@maryland.gov

Dr. Gail Clark Dickson, Title I Section Chief, Program Improvement
gail.dickson@maryland.gov

Tricia Crafton, Title I Coordinator, School Improvement

patricia.crafton@maryland.gov