The statutory authority for closing the meeting is General Provisions § 3-305(b)(7) and the topics for discussion are the definition of "moral turpitude" under Maryland law and the legal authority for summary suspensions of educator licenses under State Government Article § 10-226(c)(2).

Citation	Topic	Reason for closed-session discussion of topic
§3-305(b)(7)	The definition of "moral turpitude" under Maryland law	During its January 2024 Meeting, PSTEB considered a proposed revision to the educator licensure regulations that would define "moral turpitude" as "conduct contrary to justice, honesty, or morality." A question arose as to the definition of this term under Maryland law. The Board has sought legal advice on this issue.
§3-305(b)(7)	The Definition of "misconduct" under Maryland law	During its February 2024 Meeting, PSTEB received public comment opposing proposed revisions that would define "misconduct" as "unlawful, dishonest, or improper behavior in dereliction of an educator's duty." The Board has sought legal advice on this issue.
§3-305(b)(7)	The legal authority for summary suspensions of educator licenses under State Government Article § 10-226(c)(2)).	During its February 2024 Meeting, PSTEB received public comment opposing proposed revisions that would codify in regulation a procedural framework for summary suspensions of educator licenses under State Government Article § 10-226(c)(2). The public comment raised questions as to whether the proposed regulatory revisions would violate State or Constitutional law. The Board has sought legal advice on this issue.
