

STAY ON TRACK

▶ Create a professional e-mail.

Create a professional email. If you have an email that is not professional, create one for the purpose of applying to colleges. Use that email for this purpose

▶ Control privacy settings on social media accounts.

Be mindful of pictures and information you post on social media. College and universities may check your social media page as they review your application.