Program Description

The Local Early Childhood Advisory Council (ECAC) Quality Improvement Grant Fiscal Year 2024 is a competitive grant administered by the Division of Early Childhood at the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE). It provides funding for the 24 local early childhood advisory councils throughout Maryland.

The Local ECAC Quality Improvement grant serves to support advisory councils in the required periodic assessment of local early childhood needs, identifying the opportunities and barriers to collaboration and coordination of programs, and assessing the capacity and effectiveness of local programs for developing early childhood educators. This program provides the resources for local early childhood advisory councils to compile data and conduct activities necessary to facilitate the State Early Childhood Advisory Council in achieving its goals.

The Blueprint for Maryland’s Future (Blueprint) seeks to significantly increase investment in high-quality early childhood education so that all children can begin kindergarten ready to learn. The Local ECAC Quality Improvement grant supports the Blueprint’s strategy toward substantially increasing the availability of early childhood education opportunities and the number of early childhood educators entering and remaining in the field.

Authorization

Head Start Act, as amended., U.S. Code Citation: 42 USC § 9831 et seq.

- Supplanting existing program funds.
- Capital improvements.
- Purchase of gift cards.
- Purchase of office furniture and equipment.
- Cost(s) incurred prior to the approval of the grant.
Application Requirements

PROPOSAL COVER PAGE

Proposals must include a completed Proposal Cover Page provided in the application for participation. The cover page should not contain any graphics or additional information and must be signed by the Superintendent of Schools/Head of Grantee Agency. The subsequent information must be clearly stated in the following order:

- Name of applicant/Jurisdiction
- Name of contact person
- Address of contact person
- Telephone and email address of contact person
- Project Partners
- Amount requested.

PROJECT NARRATIVE

The project narrative consists of the following sections. These sections will be scored by reviewers.

- Project Abstract
- Extent of Need
- Evidence of Impact
- Goals, Measurable Outcomes and Milestones
- Strategies
- Management Plan
- Evaluation and Dissemination
- Sustainability Plan
- Project Timeline
- Budget and Budget Narrative

PROJECT ABSTRACT

The project statement should briefly describe the project’s outcome(s) and strategies (i.e., what the project will do and how it will do it.) Do not exceed the 100-word limit. This statement may be used in press releases, board exhibits, etc.
EXTENT OF NEED

Identify a clearly defined problem, and how the use of these funds will address the problem. Applicants should include a brief overview of the target audience and expected outcomes. A compelling proposal will have a clearly defined problem supported by a needs assessment. A needs assessment is a systematic review of information collected from a variety of sources, analyzed to determine strengths and weaknesses, and prioritized for action in the proposal.

The extent of need should reflect the findings of a local needs assessment conducted within the last 12 months, including needs assessments conducted by Local Early Childhood Advisory Councils; Head Start/Early Head Start; and state agencies, including MSDE and the Department of Health. The Division of Early Childhood’s publication, Developing an Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health Professional Development System in Maryland may also be consulted.

Here are some suggestions for writing the extent of need:

- Clearly state the main problem your proposed project will focus on.
- State who is affected by the problem.
- State when and where the problem exists.
- Document the factors contributing to the problem.
- Discuss the consequences of not dealing with the problem.
- Cite current research and data that support the need for the project from both a broad (i.e., National, State, regional) perspective and the local perspective most relevant to the target population.
- State what data were collected and cite the source of the data.
- Utilize both easily measured quantitative data (e.g., test scores, absentee rates) and qualitative data in support of quantitative data (e.g., interview, focus groups).
- Use multiple methods to document the problem when collecting local data (e.g., surveys, analysis of school records, previous studies, focus groups) and include various stakeholders such as teachers, students, parents, etc. in your data.
- Include relevant demographics and other statistics about each population you intend to serve.
- Include all relevant data from the Maryland School Performance Program (MSPP).
EVIDENCE OF IMPACT

Discuss your history of impact on the target population, what has worked, what has not worked, and your track record in effectuating change. Document current or past efforts to address the problem. Show why those efforts failed or are inadequate to address the total need. Discuss how past performance has informed the proposed activities, and the future impact your proposed key activities are likely to have on the target population. Briefly identify new or other proposed evidence-based strategies that will be implemented and how they will be measured to determine the impact on the target population.

GOALS, MEASURABLE OUTCOMES, AND MILESTONES

Goals: State the overall goal(s) of the project. The goal should address the main problem identified at the beginning of the needs assessment. While there should be at least one goal, it is possible to have multiple goals; however, the more goals established the more complex the project becomes. Goals must have long-term deadlines. If the project period covers multiple years, the goal should be set for the end of the project. Goals and objectives should directly align to the needs assessment. Include all relevant groups and individuals in the target population. Think about how to measure the change projected in each objective. If there is no way to measure a goal, it is not measurable and should be rewritten. The strongest applications will directly connect to the Blueprint for Maryland’s Future.

Measurable Outcomes: Measurable Outcomes are the anticipated outcomes to be accomplished for each year of the project and must be related to a goal. Outcomes break the long-term goal into steps or address the factors contributing to the problem addressed by the goal. It is imperative that outcomes be established for every target population the project is designed to affect. For instance, if the project seeks to increase student achievement by training teachers, there must be outcomes for both students and teachers. There may be multiple outcomes aligned to the same goal.

Milestones: Ongoing evaluation is essential to the management of a project. Since goals and outcomes are not evaluated until the end of the year, milestones must be established to measure progress during the year. Milestones should be evaluated during the year, either quarterly or semiannually.

Since milestones are intended to indicate progress towards an outcome, each milestone must be related to a stated outcome. Keep in mind that milestones are indicators of progress and may not use the same measurement tool as the outcome to which they are related. A project may take months before there is an impact on clients, or the rate of improvement may level off over time. Milestones should anticipate this and be gauged accordingly. Be sure that milestones are ambitious, yet attainable.

<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Strategies are broad approaches (methods, procedures, techniques) employed to reach milestones, realize outcomes, and ultimately accomplish goals. Begin this section with a justification as to why specific strategies were chosen and how they will help in accomplishing the stated goals, including those identified in the Evidence of Impact. The justification should cite research to support the strategies. It is essential that the project include strategies for each outcome, and outcomes for each strategy.

Once the question of why strategies were chosen is addressed, discuss how the strategies will be adapted to fit the project. What clients are targeted, and how will they use or be affected by the services the project provides? How many clients from each client group will ultimately be serviced by the project, both directly and indirectly? Explain how the number of indirect clients served was determined.

MANAGEMENT PLAN

Where many projects fail is in their management. Submit a detailed and time-specific management plan with pre-assigned responsibilities to avoid the following common errors:

- Failure to submit required reports.
- Failure to regularly monitor performance of the project during implementation.
- Failure to start the project on time.
- Failure to keep adequate project documentation.
- Failure to assure continuity and quality of the project considering personnel turnover.
- Changing without approval from MSDE the overall project from that described in the grant proposal.
- Submission of biased or incomplete project evaluation data.
- Having no approved project fiscal procedure in place.
- Disposal of project supplies, equipment, or other assets in unauthorized ways.
- Budget deviations due to unauthorized transfers from one budget category to another.
- Failure to manage inherent conflicts of policies, perspectives, and philosophies between project's host agency and the funder.
- Failure to form partnerships in which all members recognize and fulfill their clearly defined roles, responsibilities, and contributions to the project.
- Failure to complete the project in a timely fashion.

Steering Committee

The proposal should identify a steering committee composed of the members of the Local Early Childhood Advisory Council who will oversee the implementation of this grant and may include other individuals working in collaboration to fulfill the proposed grant activities. List the names, titles and affiliations of the Local Early Childhood Advisory Council members and other partners with responsibilities in the implementation of this project. The grant related duties of the Local Early Childhood Advisory Council and its partners include establishing major program policies, reviewing quarterly evaluation reports, and making recommendations for programmatic change.

Partner Plan

Applicants must provide a clear discussion of partners, respective roles in the project, the benefits each expects to receive, and the specific contributions each will make to the project (financial, equipment, personnel, or other resources). It is essential to document each partner’s commitments to the project. Append letters of commitment from each, describing roles and quantifying contributions. Never assume that reviewers will automatically know who a proposed partner is, what that partner is capable of or willing to commit to the project, or why the partner is participating.

Management Plan

This should be a chronological list of all key activities that will take place during the grant period. All proposed grant activities, the steering committee member(s) responsible for ensuring the activities are conducted, and the time frame for which they will occur. Committee meeting dates and purposes should be identified in this section of the application. Applicants should consider all the key tasks or activities that need to be carried out to implement the program successfully, whether each task can realistically begin and end in the proposed time frame, and how long each task will take to complete.

EVALUATION AND DISSEMINATION

Grantees are required to submit an interim progress report that is consistent with the project’s goal and objective(s). Keep in mind that the final evaluation summary will consider the entire project, beginning to end it should not be viewed as what is done after the project’s completion, but as an integral element in the project’s planning, design, and implementation. An ongoing plan that evaluates milestones quarterly helps project staff make informed decisions about needed changes.

Applicants must evaluate the following required measures:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<th>Response (Sample)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Evaluation Questions: What questions will the evaluation seek to answer that are based on the project’s goal(s), aligned to the management plan, and address anticipated consequences? Examine the relationship between the expected outcomes, specific efforts, and what is important to evaluate. | The goal is to build and strengthen membership within the Local ECAC by 50%.
We seek to discover the reason for the lack of participation and interest in the advisory council, training needs, subcommittee ideas, and administrative support.
Surveys and informal meetings with current and formal members will be conducted to determine the lack of participation and interest in the advisory council, training needs, subcommittee ideas and suggestion, and professional training suggestions for leadership and members.
Sample questions include:
How can we strengthen our advisory council?
What professional development do we need to help us evaluate the data, program impact, and support children and families?
How can we increase participation in our council?
How often are you able to collaborate with members of the councils? |
| What collaborative activities do you engage in with members of the councils? How often? |
| How do you feel about the length and duration of our meetings? (Choices too often, just right, not often enough/too short) |
| The data will be analyzed, and recommendations and initiatives will be formed based on the findings. |

Evaluation Strategy: What approach will be taken to find answers to the evaluation questions? What criteria will be used to assess lessons learned from the project? What populations will be included in your evaluation?

Data: The type of data and method of data collection will depend upon the nature of the program, the questions, and the evaluation strategy. What measurement instruments will be used? How will the baseline be established? There should be a combination of quantitative and qualitative data identified. How will project staff collect data from the various sites and organizations involved in the project? When considering data collection techniques, ensure that the resources are sufficient to use the proposed data collection techniques.

Evaluator(s): Specify the individuals or groups who will conduct the evaluation. What are specific qualifications? What are the responsibilities of key personnel?

Budgeting of resources and staffing for evaluation: The application's budget should reflect sufficient funds to carry out a thorough and useful evaluation. Note: The evaluation will be an internal self-evaluation/reflection and can be completed by Chair/Co-Chair of the Council or a designee at no cost.

Dissemination: Details on how the project’s findings will be disseminated to the major stakeholders, individuals with an interest in the project. Information, requirements, and dissemination methods differ from stakeholder to stakeholder. Will there be a presence on the internet and/or attending important national conferences to present lessons from the project? How and when will demonstrations of your project be made available? Also consider including descriptions of the types of reports and other by-products that will be produced during the project.

Evaluation and quarterly progress reports should be consistent with the project’s goals and objectives. An effective ongoing plan should evaluate milestones and help project staff make informed decisions.

SUSTAINABILITY PLAN

Describe plans for continuing the project beyond the funding cycle. Answer questions such as; how the project will be sustained after funding ends, what are the plans for maintaining the project’s partnerships, and how are transitions of council members planned for and their impact on the effectiveness of the council.
Budget and Budget Narrative

The project’s budget should detail all related project expenses in a separate itemized budget. It should demonstrate the extent to which the budget is reasonable, cost-effective, and integrates other sources of funding. All costs described in the project narrative should appear in the budget narrative and must have a corresponding entry in the itemized budget for that year. Reviewers should be able to see a clear connection between the management plan and the budget line items.

Begin the budget with a narrative, justifying any line-item expenses that are not obvious from the project narrative. Explain how the estimated cost of each line item was derived if the rationale is not obvious.

Following the budget narrative, include a line-item description using the format in the example below. Group line items according to the following categories: Salaries & Wages, Contracted Services, Supplies & Materials, Other Charges, Equipment, and Transfers. Total each category. Each line must be detailed and specific. General expenses should be broken down into specific line items. For example, “meeting expenses” can be broken down into room rental, photocopying and refreshments. Clearly show the requested funds and in-kind contributions for each line item. Indicate the source of the in-kind contribution. Both requested and in-kind funds must be reasonable with current market prices. Show how the expense was calculated for each line item. Reviewers will use this information to determine if the budget is reasonable and cost-effective. There is no page limit for the budget, so be as detailed as possible.

Use the format indicated by the following excerpt from a sample Budget Narrative.

Appendix D:   Evidence of status of a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization, if applicable
Appendix E:   Resume(s) of Key Personnel
Appendix F:   Signed Letter(s) of Commitment from the local Judy Center and other project partner(s) (as it is appropriate)
The Review Process

The review of proposals will be a three-part process:

1. Written applications will be pre-screened for submission requirements and inclusion of all required sections. Applications not meeting all pre-screen requirements may be returned to the applicant for revisions.

2. A review committee established by MSDE will evaluate applications using the scoring rubric. The scoring rubric is tailored to the grant program, its intent, and intended impact on the target population.

3. Final approval for awards will be determined by the review committee.

Review Committee

The committee will be composed of representatives from MSDE and the Division of Early Childhood. Reviewers will assign numerical scores to each proposal based on the criteria on the scoring rubric. Each application will be reviewed and scored based on all documents submitted. Applications may be returned to the applicant if some or all criteria do not meet the criteria standard.
