

Reading Informational (RI) Anchor Standard 1: Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

The Reading Informational Standard 1 emphasizes reading closely, making inferences, and citing textual evidence. The Reading Informational Standard 1 emphasizes reading closely, making inferences, and citing textual evidence. This Standard is paired with:

- Writing Standards
- Language Standards
- Speaking and Listening Standards

Reading Informational Standard 1 at a Glance:

- Grades K–2: Students begin independently asking and answering who, what, where, when, why, and how questions to demonstrate understanding of key text details.
- Grades 3–5: Students use evidence from the text to answer questions and make inferences, referring directly to words or phrases from the text to support their understanding text.

Key Words/Terms: Close reading, ask and answer questions, key details, text-based evidence, explicit reference, cite, inference

Reading Informational Text Standard 1 Desired Student Performance:

Reading Informational (RI) Anchor Standard 2: Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

The Reading Informational Standard 2 emphasizes reading closely, focusing on asking and answering questions to show understanding of informational text. Asking and answering questions requires students to make inferences and cite textual evidence. This Standard is paired with:

- Writing Standards
- Language Standards
- Speaking and Listening Standards

Reading Informational Standard 2 at a Glance:

- Grades K–2: Students identify the main topic and retell details, progressing to understanding how specific details support the main idea.
- Grades 3–5: Students determine the main idea of a text, explain how supporting details develop that idea, and summarize without personal opinion.

Key Words/Terms: Close reading, ask and answer questions, key details, text-based evidence, explicit reference, making inferences, citing textual evidence, main idea, text structure, retell, text support, main topic, theme

Reading Informational Text Standard 2 Desired Student Performance:

| Pre-Requisite Skills: Grade K | Grade Level: Grade 1 | Next Progression: Grade 2 |
|---|---|---|
| RI.K.2 With modeling, prompting and support, identify the main topic and retell key details of a text. | RI.1.2 Identify the main topic and retell key details of a text. | RI.2.2 Identify the main topic of a multi paragraph text as well as the focus of specific paragraphs or sections within the text. |

Essential Skills and Knowledge:

Reading Informational (RI) Anchor Standard 3: Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of text.

The Reading Informational Standard 3 emphasizes understanding main topics and ideas supported by key text details to understand relationships among historical events, ideas, and concepts. This Standard is paired with:

- Writing Standards
- Language Standards
- Speaking and Listening Standards

Reading Informational Standard 3 at a Glance:

- Grades K–2: Students describe relationships among ideas or events using language like “because,” “first,” “next,” or “then.”
- Grades 3–5: Students explain how individuals, events, or concepts relate, using text-based evidence to describe cause/effect, sequence, or comparison.

Key Words/Terms: Close reading, ask and answer questions, key details, text-based evidence, explicit reference, making inferences, and citing textual evidence, main idea, text structure, retell, text support

Reading Informational Text Standard 3 Desired Student Performance:

Reading Informational (RI) Anchor Standard 4: Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.

The Reading Informational Standard 4 emphasizes vocabulary development and word-meaning strategies. Students learn to understand words and phrases in context- whether technical, figurative, or everyday language. Students learn how word choices shape meaning or tone in a text, and begin to notice how language adds meaning or emotion to writing. This Standard is paired with:

- Writing Standards
- Language Standards
- Speaking and Listening Standards

Reading Informational Standard 4 at a Glance:

- Grades K–2: Students use context clues and background knowledge to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases, especially in academic and domain-specific contexts.
- Grades 3–5: Students determine word meanings using context, affixes, and word parts, and begin to analyze how vocabulary choices shape meaning.

Key Words/Terms: Context, academic vocabulary, morphology, root word, affixes, figurative language, determine meaning, clarify, context clues, vocabulary in context

Reading Informational (RI) Anchor Standard 5: Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

The Reading Informational Standard 5 emphasizes how texts are organized and how parts of a text (like sentences, paragraphs, or sections) work together to support understanding. They also learn to use text features (like bold words, headings, or links) to find and understand information efficiently. This Standard is paired with:

- Writing Standards
- Language Standards
- Speaking and Listening Standards

Reading Informational Standard 5 at a Glance:

- Grades K–2: Students explain how an author uses organizational structures (like chronology, comparison, or cause-effect) to present ideas clearly.
- Grades 3–5: Students analyze how paragraphs, sections, or chapters contribute to the development of ideas or arguments.

Key Words/Terms: Text features, academic and domain-specific vocabulary, print features (bold words, headings), graphic aids (charts, diagrams), organizational aids (table of contents, indexes), Informational aids (sidebars, glossaries), digital features (hyperlinks, menus)

Reading Informational Text Standard 5 Desired Student Performance:

Reading Informational (RI) Anchor Standard 10: Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

The Reading Informational Standard 10 sets guidelines for general grade-level reading expectations found in Appendix A of the College and Career Readiness Standards. It addresses the types of books students should be exposed to, as well as how text complexity increases as students move through the grade level bands. This Standard is paired with:

- Reading Informational Standards
- Speaking and Listening Standards

Reading Informational Standard 10 at a Glance:

- Grades K–2: Students read and comprehend informational texts appropriate to grade level, with scaffolding as needed.
- Grades 3–5: Students read and understand increasingly complex informational texts independently and proficiently across a range of subjects.

Key Words/Terms: Text complexity bands, collaborative conversations, text features
