<sup>1</sup> The time limit does not apply to a parent if the parent was prevented from filing a due process complaint due to: (1) specific misrepresentations by the public agency that it had resolved the problem forming the basis of the due process complaint; or (2) the public agency's withholding of information from the parent that was required under Part 300 of IDEA to be provided to the parent (34 CFR 300.511(f)).

<sup>2</sup> Such exceptions include: the public agency may not file a due process complaint or use mediation to override a parent's refusal to consent to the initial provision of special education services (34 CFR 300.300(b)(3)); the public agency may not file a due process complaint or use mediation to override a parent's refusal to consent to an initial evaluation or reevaluation of a parentally-placed private school child or home schooled child; (34 CFR 300.300(c)(4)(i)); the right of parents of parentally placed private school children to file a due process complaint is limited to the public agency's failure to meet the child find requirements (34 CFR 300.140); the public agency's failure to provide a highly qualified teacher is not an issue subject to due process, but a State complaint could be filed with the State Education Agency (SEA) (34 CFR 300.156(e)).

<sup>3</sup> If the due process complaint is filed for an expedited hearing pursuant to discipline procedures, or the student is not currently enrolled and attending school, the resolution period is 15 calendar days (with the meeting being held within 7 days). If the matter has not been resolved to the satisfaction of both parties, the hearing must occur within 20 school days of the date the hearing is requested and a decision must be issued within 10 school days after the hearing. (34 CFR 300.532(c) and COMAR 13A.05.01.15).

<sup>5</sup> The regulations allow for adjustments to the 30-day resolution period. The 45-day timeline for the due process hearing starts the day after one of the following events: (1) both parties agree in writing to waive the resolution meeting; (2) after either the mediation or resolution meeting starts but before the end of the 30-day period, the parties agree in writing that no agreement is possible; (3) if both parties agree in writing to continue the mediation at the end of the 30-day resolution period, but later, the parent or public agency withdraws from the mediation process. (34 CFR 300.510 (c)).

<sup>6</sup> Parent failure to participate in the resolution meeting delays the timelines for the resolution process and due process hearing until the meeting is held. (34 CFR 300.510(b)(3)).

<sup>7</sup> If the public agency fails to hold the resolution meeting within 15 days of receiving the parent's due process complaint or fails to participate in the resolution meeting, the parent may seek the intervention of a hearing officer/ALJ to begin the due process hearing timeline (34 CFR 300.510(b)(5)).

<sup>8</sup> The timeline for resolving the State complaint may be extended if exceptional circumstances exist with respect to a particular complaint, or the parent (or individual or organization, if mediation or other alternative means of dispute resolution, is available to the individual or organization under State procedures) and the public agency agree to extend the time to engage in mediation or to engage in other alternative means of dispute resolution, if available in the State (34 CFR 300.152(b)(1)).

<sup>9</sup> The SEA's complaint procedures must provide the public agency with the opportunity to respond to the complaint, including, at the discretion of the public agency, a proposal to resolve the complaint; and an opportunity for a parent who has filed a complaint and the public agency to voluntarily engage in mediation. (34 CFR 300.152(a)(3)). In some cases, the complainant and public agency may be able to resolve the dispute without the need for the SEA to resolve the matter.
