

Investing in Education

Baltimore County Executive
Johnny Olszewski

Tuesday, February 28, 2023

CONSISTENT INVESTMENT IN EDUCATION

Funding well above Maintenance of Effort year over year

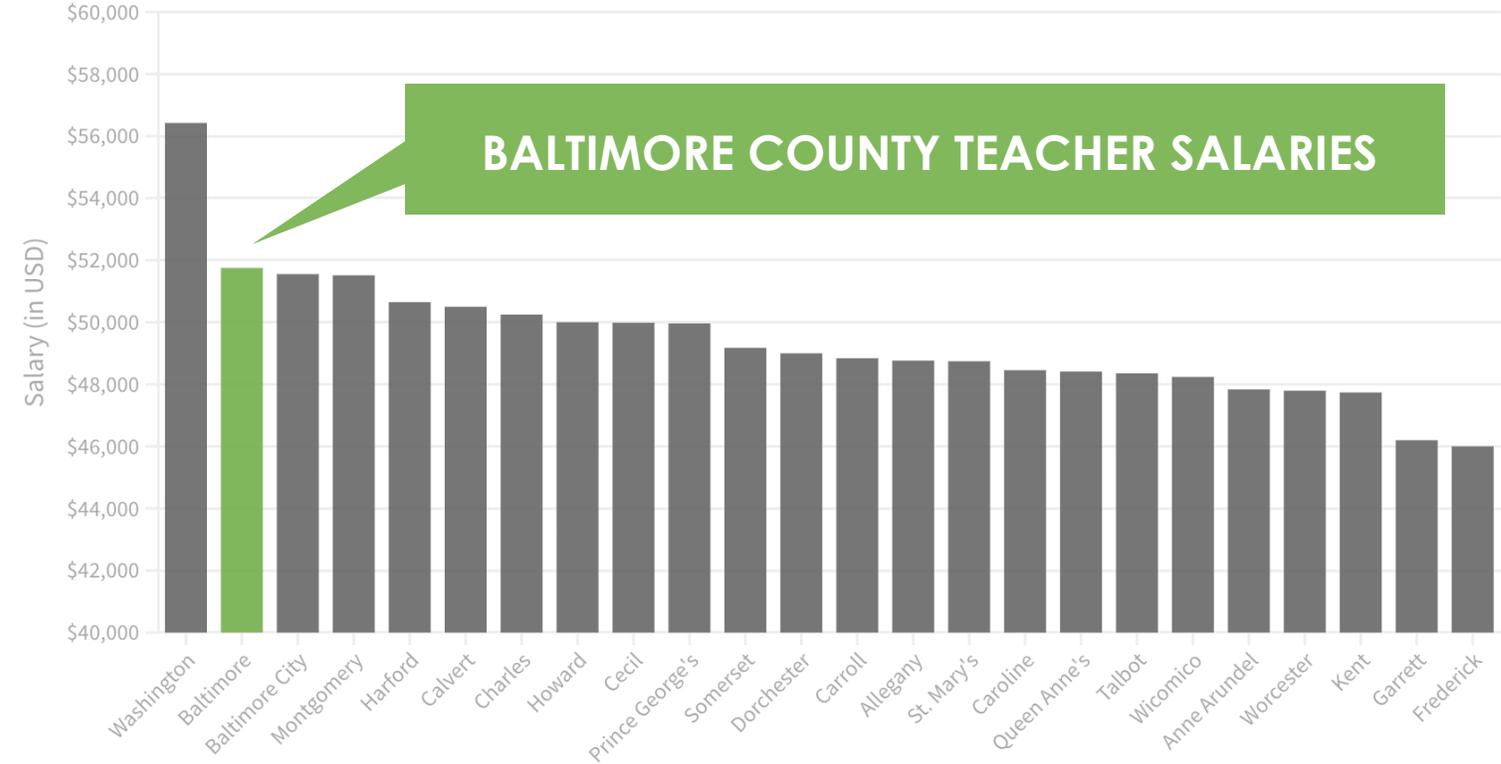

FY23 BUDGET

$70 million investment despite dropping enrollment

CONSISTENT INVESTMENT IN EDUCATION

Baltimore County
teacher salaries
amongst most competitive
in the state

Salaries for teachers with bachelor's degrees by Maryland counties, 2021-2022

IMPROVING THE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Partnership offering free dual college enrollment opportunities to all high school students, beginning summer before 9th grade year

IMPROVING THE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Growing Community Schools

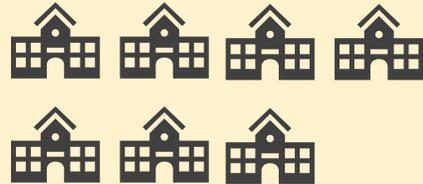

2023

30

2024

71

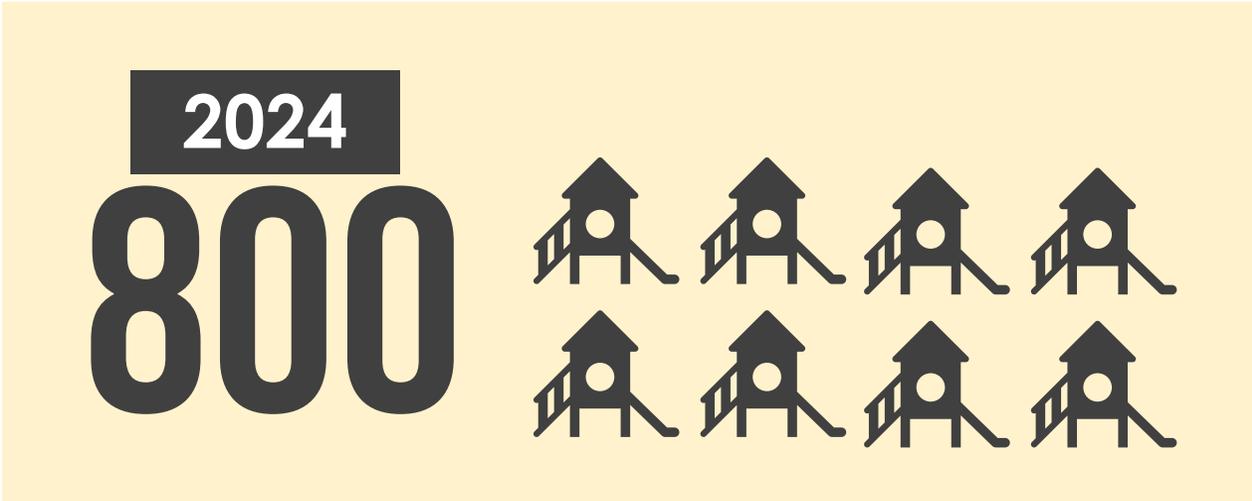

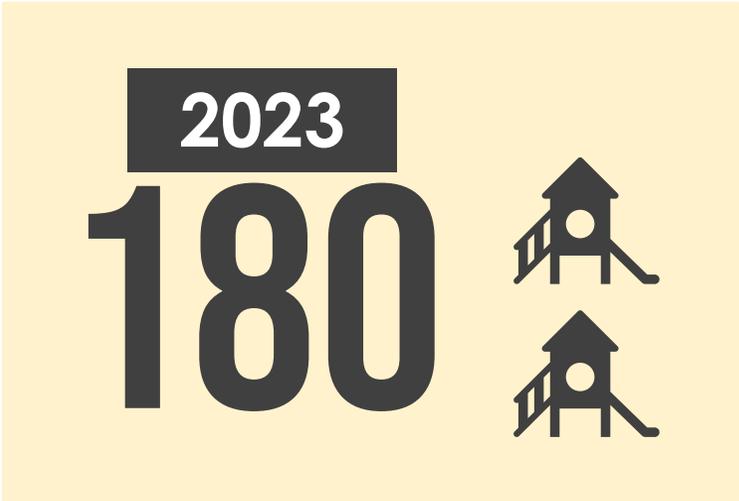

The Chesapeake School Network

- Partnering with Baltimore County Government to support the Essex revitalization project
- Launched mobile unit to bring services to community

IMPROVING THE EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Grow Full-Day Pre-K Program

FISCAL TRANSPARENCY

Transparency in budgets to ensure strategic and equitable deployment for our schools, educators, and students

MSDE PARTNERSHIP

Provide local school systems with professional development and technical assistance to use the historic investments provided by the Blueprint to their full potential.

Create new opportunities for young learners, youth apprentices, and career pathways throughout Maryland

THANK YOU

